

Library Policy

The library is committed to providing a quiet, safe, and resourceful environment for all users. Visitors are expected to maintain respectful behavior, avoid excessive noise, and handle all library materials with care. Food, drinks, and disruptive activities are not permitted in reading or study areas.

Library members may borrow books and other materials using a valid membership account. Borrowed items must be returned on or before the due date. Late returns may result in penalties or temporary suspension of borrowing privileges. Lost or damaged materials must be replaced or compensated for according to library guidelines.

The use of library computers, internet services, and digital resources must comply with ethical and lawful standards. Users must not access inappropriate content, install unauthorized software, or misuse library technology. The library reserves the right to deny access or revoke privileges in cases of policy violations.
